7. Later, the Diocese created a corporation called the Diocese of Ogdensburg to conduct some of its affairs.

8. The Diocese operates its affairs as both a corporate entity and as the organization known as Diocese of Ogdensburg.

9. At all times material, the Diocese had several programs that seek out the participation of children, including but not limited to schools and other educational programs.

10. At all times material, the Diocese, through its officials, had complete control over those activities and programs involving children.

11. At all times material, the Diocese had the power to appoint each and every person working with children within the Diocese.

12. At all times material, the Diocese had the power to train each and every person working with children within the Diocese.

13. At all times material, the Diocese had the power to supervise each and every person working with children within the Diocese.

14. At all times material, the Diocese had the power to monitor each and every person working with children within the Diocese.

15. At all times material, the Diocese had the power to remove each and every person working with children within the Diocese.

16. At all times material, the Diocese had the power to terminate each and every person working with children within the Diocese.

17. At all times material, Defendant St. Mary's Church a/k/a The Roman Catholic Church of St. Mary ("St. Mary's") was an organization authorized to conduct business and conducting business in the State of New York, with its principal place of business at 17 Lawrence Street, Potsdam, New York 13676.

18. St. Mary's includes, but is not limited to, the parish corporation and any other organizations and/or entities operating under the same or similar name with the same or similar principal place of business.

19. At all times material, St. Mary's was under the authority of the Diocese.

45. At all times material, the Diocese managed Notre Dame/SMCND.

46. At all times material, the Diocese maintained Notre Dame/SMCND.

47. At all times material, the Diocese controlled Notre Dame/SMCND.

48. Defendants Does 1 through 5 are unknown agents whose identities will be provided when they become known pursuant to C.P.L.R. § 1024.

JURISDICTION

49. This Court has jurisdiction because the Diocese of Ogdensburg's, St. Mary's, Notre Dame's and Notre Dame/SMCND's principal places of business are in New York.

50. This Court has jurisdiction because the unlawful conduct complained of herein occurred in New York.

51. Venue is proper because St. Lawrence County is the principal place of business of the Diocese of Ogdensburg, Notre Dame and Notre Dame/SMCND.

52. Venue is proper because many of the events giving rise to this action occurred in St. Lawrence County.

FACTS

53. At all times material, Father Robert Shurtleff (Fr. Shurtleff') was a Roman Catholic priest employed by Defendants.

54. At all times material, Fr. Shurtleff remained under the supervision of Defendants.

55. At all times material, Fr. Shurtleff remained under the employ of Defendants.
56. At all times material, Fr. Shurtleff remained under the control of Defendants.
57. Defendants placed Fr. Shurtleff in positions where he had access to and worked with children as a part of his work.
58. Plaintiff attended Notre Dame Church in Ogdensburg, New York, in the Diocese of Ogdensburg.
59. Plaintiff and Plaintiff's family came in contact with Fr. Shurtleff as an agent and representative of Defendants, and at Notre Dame.
60. Plaintiff participated in youth activities and/or church activities at Notre Dame Church.
61. Each Defendant had custody of Plaintiff.
62. Each Defendant accepted the entrustment of Plaintiff.
63. Each Defendant had responsibility for Plaintiff.
64. Each Defendant had authority over Plaintiff.
65. In approximately 1970, when Plaintiff was approximately 11 years old, Fr. Shurtleff engaged in unpermitted sexual contact with Plaintiff.
66. At the time of the abuse, Fr. Shurtleff was performing duties as a Roman Catholic priest at Notre Dame Church in his hometown of Ogdensburg, New York, although upon information and belief, Fr. Shurtleff's official assignment at the time was as a priest at St. Mary's Church in Potsdam, New York.
67. Each Defendant owed a duty of care to Plaintiff not to place Fr. Shurtleff in a setting that would foreseeably pose a danger to Plaintiff.
68. Defendants knew or should have known that Fr. Shurtleff was a danger to children before Fr. Shurtleff sexually assaulted Plaintiff.

69. Prior to the sexual abuse of Plaintiff, Defendants knew or should have known that Fr. Shurtleff was not fit to work with children.

70. Defendants, by and through their agents, servants and/or employees, knew or should have known of Fr. Shurtleff's propensity to commit sexual abuse and of the risk to Plaintiff's safety.

71. Defendants knew or should have known that they did not have sufficient information about whether or not their leaders and people working at Catholic institutions within the Diocese were safe.

72. Defendants knew or should have known that there was a risk of child sex abuse for children participating in Catholic programs and activities within the Diocese.

73. Defendants knew or should have known that they did not have sufficient information about whether or not there was a risk of child sex abuse for children participating in Catholic programs and activities within the Diocese.

74. Defendants knew or should have known that Defendants had numerous agents who had sexually molested children.

75. Defendants knew or should have known that child molesters have a high rate of recidivism.

76. Defendants knew or should have known that some of the leaders and people working in Catholic institutions within the Diocese were not safe and that there was a danger of child sex abuse for children participating in their youth programs.

77. Defendants negligently deemed that Fr. Shurtleff was fit to work with children.

78. Defendants negligently deemed that any previous problems that Fr. Shurtleff had were fixed or cured.

79. Defendants negligently deemed that Fr. Shurtleff would not sexually assault children and/or that Fr. Shurtleff would not injure children.

80. Defendants owed Plaintiff a duty of reasonable care because they had superior knowledge about the risk that Fr. Shurtleff posed to Plaintiff, the risk of abuse in general in their programs and/or the risks that their facilities posed to minor children.

81. Defendants owed a duty to Plaintiff to protect Plaintiff from harm because Defendants' actions created a foreseeable risk of harm to Plaintiff.

82. As a vulnerable child participating in the programs and activities Defendants offered to minors, Plaintiff was a foreseeable victim.

83. As a vulnerable child who Fr. Shurtleff had access to through Defendants' facilities and programs, Plaintiff was a foreseeable victim.

84. Defendants also breached their duty to Plaintiff by actively maintaining and employing Fr. Shurtleff in a position of power and authority through which Fr. Shurtleff had access to children, including Plaintiff, and power and control over children, including Plaintiff.

85. Each Defendant breached its duties to Plaintiff. Defendants failed to use ordinary care in determining whether their facilities were safe and/or determining whether they had sufficient information to represent their facilities as safe. Defendants' breach of their duties include, but are not limited to: failure to protect Plaintiff from a known danger, failure to have sufficient policies and procedures to prevent child sex abuse, failure to properly implement policies and procedures to prevent child sex abuse, failure to take reasonable measures to make sure that policies and procedures to prevent child sex abuse were working, failure to adequately inform families and children of the risks of child sex abuse, failure to investigate risks of child sex abuse, failure to properly train the employees at institutions and programs within Defendants' geographical confines, failure to train parishioners within Defendants' geographical confines about the risk of sexual abuse; failure to have any outside agency test their safety procedures, failure to protect the children in their programs from child sex abuse, failure to adhere to the applicable standard of care for child safety, failure to investigate the amount and type of information necessary to represent the institutions, programs, leaders and people as safe, failure to train their employees properly to identify signs of child sexual abuse by fellow employees, failure by relying upon mental health professionals, and/or failure by relying on people who claimed that they could treat child molesters.

86. Defendants also breached their duty to Plaintiff by failing to warn Plaintiff and Plaintiff's family of the risk that Fr. Shurtleff posed and the risks of child sexual abuse in Catholic institutions.

87. Defendants also failed to warn Plaintiff or Plaintiff's family about any of the knowledge that Defendants had about child sexual abuse.

88. Defendants additionally violated a legal duty by failing to report known and/or suspected abuse of children by Fr. Shurtleff and/or its other agents to the police and law enforcement.

89. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' conduct described herein, Plaintiff has suffered, and will continue to suffer, sexual and physical damage and abuse, great pain of mind and body, severe and permanent emotional distress, physical manifestations of emotional distress, embarrassment, loss of self-esteem, humiliation, physical, personal and psychological injuries. Plaintiff was prevented, and will continue to be prevented, from performing normal daily activities and obtaining the full enjoyment of life; and/or has incurred and will continue to incur expenses for psychological treatment, therapy, and counseling, and, on information and belief has and/or will incur loss of income and/or loss of earning capacity.

90. The limitations of Article 16 of the CPLR do not apply because one or more of the exceptions set forth in CPLR 1601 and/or 1602 apply.

AS AND FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS IN PREMISES LIABILITY

91. Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every paragraph of this Complaint as if fully set forth at length herein.

92. Each Defendant owed Plaintiff a duty to protect Plaintiff from harm because Defendants invited Plaintiff onto their property.

93. Fr. Shurtleff posed a dangerous condition on Defendants' property.

94. Each Defendant allowed Fr. Shurtleff to remain on Defendants' property even though they knew or should have known of Fr. Shurtleff's dangerous sexual propensities.

95. Fr. Shurtleff was dangerous, unsafe, and posed a risk of serious injury to any persons who were lawfully in and about said area.

96. Each Defendant knew or should have known of the danger posed by Fr. Shurtleff and despite said notice, each Defendant failed, refused, and/or neglected to remove, reassign, or restrict Fr. Shurtleff's access to children, and were otherwise careless and negligent such that a great risk of serious injury to persons who are lawfully in and about said area was caused and/or allowed to exist.

97. Each Defendant knew or should have known that Fr. Shurtleff posed an unreasonable risk of harm and a foreseeable danger to Plaintiff.

98. Defendants knew or should have known that Fr. Shurtleff was a danger to children before Fr. Shurtleff sexually assaulted Plaintiff.

99. Defendants knew or should have known that Fr. Shurtleff was not fit to work with children and had a propensity to engage in conduct with children that was sexual in nature before Fr. Shurtleff sexually assaulted Plaintiff.

100. As a direct and proximate result of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained physical, emotional, and psychological injuries, along with pain and suffering.

101. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff has been damaged in an amount which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

AS AND FOR A SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS IN NEGLIGENCE

102. Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every paragraph of this Complaint as if fully set forth at length herein.

103. Each Defendant voluntarily undertook to control, care for, and/or supervise Plaintiff.

104. Each Defendant owed Plaintiff a duty of reasonable care to protect the Plaintiff from injury.

105. Each Defendant breached its duties to Plaintiff by failing to use reasonable care. Defendants' failures include, but are not limited to, failing to properly supervise Fr. Shurtleff, failing to properly supervise Plaintiff, and failing to protect Plaintiff from a known danger.

106. Defendants knew or should have known that Fr. Shurtleff was a danger to children before Fr. Shurtleff sexually assaulted Plaintiff.

107. Defendants knew or should have known that Fr. Shurtleff was not fit to work with children and had a propensity to engage in conduct with children that was sexual in nature before Fr. Shurtleff sexually assaulted Plaintiff.

108. As a direct and proximate result of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained physical, emotional, and psychological injuries, along with pain and suffering.

109. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff has been damaged in an amount which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

AS AND FOR A THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS IN NEGLIGENT SUPERVISION OF ITS EMPLOYEES AND ENTITIES

110. Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every paragraph of this Complaint as if fully set forth at length herein.

111. At all times material, Fr. Shurtleff was employed by Defendants and was under Defendants' direct supervision, employ, and control when he committed the wrongful acts alleged herein.

112. Fr. Shurtleff engaged in the wrongful conduct while acting in the course and scope of his employment with Defendants and/or accomplished the sexual abuse by virtue of his job-created authority.

113. Defendants had a duty to ensure that Fr. Shurtleff did not sexually molest children.

114. Defendants had a duty to train and educate employees and administrators and establish adequate and effective policies and procedures calculated to detect, prevent, and address inappropriate behavior and conduct between clerics and children.

115. Defendants were negligent in the training, supervision, and instruction of their employees.

116. Defendants failed to timely and properly educate, train, supervise, and/or monitor their agents or employees with regard to policies and procedures that should be followed when sexual abuse of a child is suspected or observed.

117. Defendants were additionally negligent in failing to supervise, monitor, chaperone, and/or investigate Fr. Shurtleff and/or in failing to create, institute, and/or enforce rules, policies, procedures, and/or regulations to prevent Fr. Shurtleff's sexual abuse of Plaintiff.

118. In failing to properly supervise Fr. Shurtleff, and in failing to establish such training procedures for employees and administrators, Defendants failed to exercise the care that a reasonably prudent person or entity would have exercised under similar circumstances.

119. Defendants knew or should have known that Fr. Shurtleff was a danger to children before Fr. Shurtleff sexually assaulted Plaintiff.

120. Defendants knew or should have known that Fr. Shurtleff was not fit to work with children and had a propensity to engage in conduct with children that was sexual in nature before Fr. Shurtleff sexually assaulted Plaintiff.

121. As a direct and proximate result of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained physical, emotional, and psychological injuries, along with pain and suffering.

122. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff has been damaged in an amount which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

AS AND FOR A FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS IN NEGLIGENT RETENTION

123. Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every paragraph of this Complaint as if fully set forth at length herein.

124. Defendants knew or should have known of Fr. Shurtleff's propensity for child sexual abuse, and failed to take any further action to remedy the problem and failed to investigate or remove Fr. Shurtleff from working with children.

125. Defendants negligently retained Fr. Shurtleff with knowledge of Fr. Shurtleff's propensity for the type of behavior which resulted in Plaintiff's injuries in this action.

126. Defendants negligently retained Fr. Shurtleff in a position where he had access to children and could foreseeably cause harm which Plaintiff would not have been subjected to had Defendants acted reasonably.

127. In failing to timely remove Fr. Shurtleff from working with children, Defendants failed to exercise the degree of care that a reasonably prudent person or entity would have exercised under similar circumstances.

128. As a direct and proximate result of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained physical, emotional, and psychological injuries, along with pain and suffering.

129. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff claims to have been damaged in an amount which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

AS AND FOR A FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS IN NEGLIGENT INFILCTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

130. Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every paragraph of this Complaint as if fully set forth at length herein.

131. Each Defendant owed a duty of care to Plaintiff not to place Fr. Shurtleff in a setting that would foreseeably pose a danger to Plaintiff.

132. Defendants knew or should have known that Fr. Shurtleff was a danger to children before Fr. Shurtleff sexually assaulted Plaintiff.

133. Defendants knew or should have known that Fr. Shurtleff had a propensity to engage in conduct with children that was sexual in nature before Fr. Shurtleff sexually assaulted Plaintiff.

134. Each Defendant breached its duties to Plaintiff by failing to use reasonable care. Each Defendant's failures include, but are not limited to, failing to properly supervise Fr. Shurtleff, failing to properly supervise Plaintiff and failing to protect Plaintiff from a known danger.

135. The negligence and conduct of each Defendant unreasonably endangered the physical safety of Plaintiff.

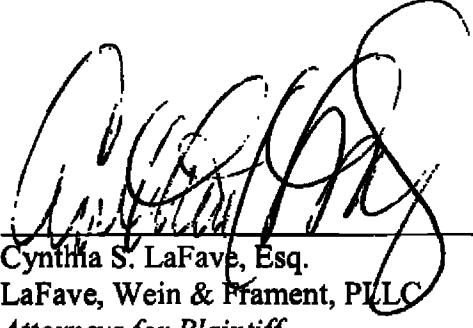

136. The aforementioned negligence of each Defendant was a direct and proximate cause of the extreme emotional and psychological harm and distress suffered by Plaintiff and unreasonably endangered Plaintiff's safety.

137. As a direct and proximate result of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained physical, emotional, and psychological injuries, along with pain and suffering.

138. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff has been damaged in an amount which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, on Plaintiff's First, Second, Third, Fourth, and Fifth Causes of Action in an amount which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower Courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction, together with interest as allowed by statute, the costs and disbursements of this action, and such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.
